

Name: Elvis Feng

Class: World Lit

Teacher: Ms. Cadoux

Date: 2016,9,5,

The snipers

There is a young boy, he is looking for his brother and his remember. He is very want to back to that time. That time is very happy and special for him, but he knows he can't do that anymore, because there is a war for them, and his brother is not on the same side with him. His brother is on the other side. His brother and he are all the snipers. On the war, he kills other people on the other side, but when he sees his brother, he can't really shot him. His brother cannot really shot him, too. Sometimes he wants to go to find his brother and talking about this war, but he knows if he goes there he will be die. Although his brother is there, his brother cannot save him. So he can't go there. The war has start for a long time, but it is still not over. Everyone is very tired, and their food also is already gone. Both sides want to over this war, but they still have to fight to the end. His brother and him are still alive. He still can't really kill his brother, but his brother is think the same thing with him. His brother thinks he has to finish this war, so he has to kill his brother early. So when the war is start, he still kills other people in the other side, but he felling there is a sniper is shot him. He sees his brother is already shot him, he never thinks his brother will shot him. His brother is already prepare to kill him. So he also thinks he can't save his brother anymore, he also shoots his brother, too. His shot is good than his brother, so his brother is die from him. After the war is over, he is very relax, but he is very sad, too.

After his brother is die for a long time, the character is still very sad. He can't forget the happen that is he kills his brother. When he think about that happen, he just like a person that is very gloomy. HIs friends don't want to see the character just like a gloomy person, so they always console the character, tell him don't be sad anymore. Although his friends always console him, but when he conceive to his brother. He will just be a gloomy person and cry all day. After 2~3 months, there is a another war gonna started, the character still have to be a sniper on the army. Although he doesn't want to join the army, but he has to thinking for his country and future. So he still goes into the army and be their sniper. A war is started, the place of a war is the same place to last time, so when the character see this place, he also conceive his brother, but he has to focus on a war. So he can't because his brother and affect his work. He also climb on to the building, and start to kill the enemy and the sniper in the other side. At this moment, he sees the sniper from the other side, he sees his brother is the sniper in the other side. He is very shock at this moment, he is feeling very happy, but some feeling is very scarce. He is thinking why his brother is in the other side, he thinks this is impossible. So he looks at this sniper again, is the another sniper. At this moment, he discovers that is his hallucination. So he is very sad at this moment, one is because about his brother's die, another is because he still can't lay down his brother. He just sit down and crying on the ground, the sniper in the other side is very shock, he shocks about why the character doesn't shot him. This sniper has not because the character and stop to kill the people, he still continues kill the enemy. After 10 minute, the character thinks he can't because this happen and let their army lose the war. So he stands up and start to kill the enemy from the other side, but he still can't kill the sniper from the other side, because when the character sees this sniper. He always appear the hallucination from his eyes, but he has to quick to end the war. So he just closes his eyes and shot the sniper. After the sniper in the other side is die, the character keep killing the enemy. The war is end, lots of people are die, other people get the relax. The character is very happy, and he is feel very good, he thinks he is already leave the shadow from his brother. The problem from before is he don't want to face this happen. This happen makes him scare, but now, he is free.