Animal Story – Second draft

A few years ago, there was an animal that lived in a forest with his family.

His name is Elftopus and his family name is Davis. He has eight legs with rainbow colors. He is a medium sized animal. Elftopus has one big green round eye with one dark eyebrow. He only has two teeth, but he has a huge mouth. The last thing, he has a pair of elf ears, which are long brown ears. Elftopus lives in a lake. His favorite food is beef and greens. He moves slowly, so he can't catch any other animals. He enjoys telling lies and tricking other animals.

One day, Elftopus went to find food and he met his friend. This guy's name is Sam. He planned to make fun of his friend. While they were playing, Elftopus ran faster and faster and hid behind a tree. Then he cried for help, "I am trapped," Elftopus shouted.

"What...should I do?" Sam said.

Sam was scared and worried but he wanted to save Elftopus. Sam ran toward Elftopus, but when he came closer,

“You didn’t get trapped,” Sam said.

“Hahaha...” Elftopus laughed.

Elftopus was laughing hard on the ground. Sam was confused and he had no idea what’s going on right now.

“I tricked you I tricked you!” Elftopus laughed.

“How can you do that, do you know how I felt when you got trapped!” Sam shouted.

“Relax man, it’s just a joke,” Elftopus said.

Sam was very angry and he went back to his home, He flung the door very hard,

and Sam’s mom saw that.

“What’s wrong Sam?” Sam’s mom asked.

“I will not play with Elftopus anymore!” Sam shouted.

“Why not? I thought Elftopus is your best friend.” Sam’s mom asked.

“He just made an egregious joke to me!” Sam answered.

Sam’s mother was still very confused about it, but she thought she should stop asking.

One sunny day, all the animals had a gathering in the forest. Elftopus thought it was the best time to trick others. When most of the animals were gathering in the park, he threw a big rock in the swamp, making a big sound “bump.” Then he screamed, “I am drowning, help help!” All the animals rushed over to him. When they got there, they couldn’t find Elftopus. The animal who could swim and jumped into the swamp, but they couldn’t find Elftopus either. They became very sad, as they thought that Elftopus was dead. Suddenly, he jumped out from where he was hiding.

“Hahaha, all of you guys just fell for my trick.” Elftopus laughed and said.

“Elftopus, that is ridiculous, do you know how scared we were?” The leader of those animals said.

Everyone just stared at him and were very angry. Elftopus was very confused why was everyone so angry and so mean to him.

“Come on guys, just a joke!” Elftopus said.

“But this joke is too egregious if you were really dead, how would your mom feel?” The leader said.

“Kids shouldn’t let their parents become sad,” said the other animals.

But Elftopus still thought he didn’t do anything wrong, so he just kept making fun of the others.

After that day, the animals didn’t trust Elftopus anymore. Time has passed and one day while Elftopus was walking in the forest he fell down into a trap.

“Help, can anyone hear me? I need help!” Elftopus shouted.

The leader and other animals heard the sound,

“Whose is that?” one animal asked.

“I think it is Elftopus. The guy who loves to make fun of everyone” said Sam.

“Just ignore him, I think he is going to trick us again!” the leader said.

An animal who heard the sound decided to ignore it. Elftopus shouted for 30 minutes, but no one came to help him. Elftopus was scared and lonely. In that moment, he knew that no one believed him because he lied and tricked everyone.

After that, there is a guy stood next to the trap, that person is Sam.

“Sam, help me please,” Elftopus said.

“Sure, but you have to promise me you will not trick anyone anymore!” said Sam.

“I promise you! Please help me!” Elftopus said.

After Sam pull Elftopus up,

“I’m sorry Sam. I will not trick anyone anymore. I will be an honest person!”

Elftopus said.

“It will be great!” Sam said.

After that, Elftopus became an honest person and he did a lot of good things.
